THE MERRITT SALE.

Sale of Cents and Half Cents, the property Mr. Geo. W. Merritt, at Bangs & Co., January 3d, 1879. Catalogue by Ed. Frossard.

On account of the extreme severity of the weather, and the incidental delays to traveling experienced, several collectors who had started from a distance with the intention of attending the sale were unable to reach New York in time. Still we noted with pleasure a goodly gathering of coin men—Messrs. Haseltine, Chapman, and Randall, from Philadelphia; Mr. Childs of Boston, and others from the north and west, as well as a large quota of New York dealers and collectors. If, in the aggregate, the amounts realized at this sale did not fully come up to our expectations, still the sum of $4,400 for a set of cents and half cents, with, it is true, frequent duplication, was not altogether an unfavorable result. At the request of many correspondents who were unable to secure the catalogue, and also as a rather interesting contribution to NUMISMA and guide of the value of those desirable American coins we make the following extracts of descriptions of the principal pieces of the collection, with price realised for each:

UNITED STATES CENTS.

- 79 1793 Head of Liberty, with long flowing hair and dots after the legend LIBERTY and the date. R Endless chain with UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Of brilliant dark steel color, and with even the tips of the masses of hair untouched by friction; rim raised and sharp as when struck. In this condition extremely rare and valuable. $76 00.
- 80 — Another from the same die; the hair slightly rubbed by friction, still a fine impression, and desirable. 12 00.
- 81 — Same type, but from a different die, without the dots after LIBERTY and the date; the hair over the ear touched by friction, otherwise extremely fine. 15 00.
- 82 — Duplicate of last; a strong impression, of uniform color, showing few marks of circulation, but struck on a rough planchet. 10 00.

- 83 — Similar obv. with wide date. R UNITED STATES OF AMERI. A crack in the planchet extends from L in Liberty, through the hair, and four very short nicks in the hair and one on the cheek slightly mar this piece; otherwise in beautiful condition. Extremely rare. 29 00.
- 84 — Another AMERI cent; hair rubbed near the cheek; LIBERTY and date very good. Seldom found better. 13 50.
- 85 — Head of Liberty, with small date and legend; between the bust and date a short branch with three slender leaves. R ONE CENT within an olive wreath; rim evenly dotted. Splendid uncirculated cent, of fine steel color and polished surface, without the slightest scratch or abrasion. Rare and valuable, and a perfect match to No. 79. 32 50.
- 86 — Apparently from the same die as last, except that the stems of three leaves under bust are bunched, which may or may not have been caused by a slight break in the die. Very fine, with tips of the masses of hair rubbed. 15 00.
- 87 — Broad head, the leaves more spreading than in other varieties, touching the hair on the left; the obverse die appearing to have sprung across the centre. Extremely fine and rare. 12 50.
- 88 — One from the same die as last, with hair rubbed in centre, but a perfect reverse; also sprung across the centre. 10 00.
- 89 — Still another. Very poor, but date visible. 2 10.
- 90 — Head of Liberty, with three clover leaves and one flower under the bust; the reverse with ONE CENT within wreath. Of this extremely rare variety only three specimens are known; this one, on the whole, equal to the one sold a year ago at Clinton Hall, with which we had occasion to compare it. Barely fair; LIBERTY distinct; 9 and 3 of date weak. 45 25.

(All the preceding 1793 Cents have the bars and leaves on edge.)

- 91 — Head of Liberty, with LIBERTY in very small letters, and broader date, the left leaf under bust rising perpendicularly, the other inclining at sharp angles to right; the edge inscribed ONE HUNDRED FOR A DOLLAR. A beautiful, strong impression, with traces of original red color on obverse, and very nearly uncirculated,

- but slightly mistruck. Rare and valuable. 15 00.
- 92 — Duplicate of last, nearly equal to it, but with planchet slightly rough on the left field behind the hair. 11 00.
- 93 — Head of Liberty with short flowing hair and a Liberty cap on a staff over the shoulder. Evenly struck from the sound dies. Fine. 12 00.
- 94 — Another of the "Liberty cap" type, with a crack extending from E of Liberty to 3 of date. Fine, but somewhat corroded; still the best impression that has been offered in a long time. 10 75.
- (The four preceding Cents have "ONE HUNDRED FOR A DOLLAR," inscribed on edge.)
- 95 1794 Head resembles the '93 Liberty cap; date close, and distant from bust. Beautiful light olive, surface brilliant, and entirely uncirculated. (Maris' Double chin, No. 2, with R No. 4. A combination not in his work.) 15.00.
- 96 — Features and hair more strongly marked; date close to bust. Beautiful light olive, strong milling; totally uncirculated. (Maris' Young head, No. 5.) 11 25.
- 97 — Pyramidal Head, one of the finest and rarest heads of this date; the obverse slightly concave. Very good. (Maris' No. 10.) 4 25.
- 98 — Outline of face noble and very strongly marked; hair short, but in heavy locks near the ear; date wide and separated; milling not strong. A magnificent specimen; totally uncirculated, and as sharp as when struck. (Maris' Separated date, No. 15.) 12 50.
- 99 — Head small; chin rather large and heavy; Hair long and wavy; the 4 of date below the line of the other figures; milling not strongly marked on right. Shows no marks of circulation. Very fine. (Maris' Fallen fenn, No. 20.) 7 00.
- 100 — Head larger and wider; the legend close to head, and date to bust; LIBERTY a trifle rubbed, otherwise v, f.; olive color (Maris' Patagonian, No. 23.) 4 50.
- 101 — From the same dies as last, but dark, and not so strong an impression. 1 75.
- 102 — A variety closely resembling the last. Good impression, but hair rubbed. 1 45.
- 103 — Planchet large, head fine and large, legend and date even; milling narrow on obverse and deep on reverse; hair rubbed, but still a desirable piece. Source. (Maris' Ornate, No. 25.) 1 10.
- 104 — Physiognomy rather simple and amiable, LIBERTY indented on lower edge, the 1 and 4 of date touch the hair and bust; hair flattened near the ear, still very fine; olive color. (Maris' Amiable face, No. 26.) 3 50.
- 105 — Head well shaped and fine, hair thick, LIBERTY slightly indented on lower edge, date wide and even, milling very slight. A fine dark impression, little circulated. (Maris' Large planchet, No. 28.) 3 10.
- 106 — Physiognomy benign and amiable, hair abundant, legend even; 1 and 4 of date very near, though not touching the bust; there are two slight breaks in the field on the left, for which cause Dr. Maris denominated this variety the "Marred field." (No. 29.) Fine uncirculated cent. 8 00.
- 107 — Face large and fine, hair straight and long, the top of legend on a higher line than LINE and separated from it by a crack in the die; another break extends through the cap. Date wide, milling not deep, in condition very good and as far as known unique, being a variety unknown to Dr. Maris. 3 90.
- 108 — Four varieties of this date, all good. 90c. each.
- 109 — One more, barely fair. 50c.
- 110 1795 Thick planchet, with lettered edge. A strong impression, of fine color, well struck, and barely circulated. 19 00.
- 111 — Another of the thick planchet, lettered edge, with strongly milled rim. In condition barely circulated, but dark. 7 25.
- 112 — Thin planchet, plain edge. The reverse has "ONE CENT" in centre. Perfectly uncir. and brilliant color. 18 00.
- 113 — Thicker planchet, edge plain. "ONE CENT" on reverse high in wreath. Uncir. and of beautiful olive with traces of original red. 12 00.
- 114 — From the same dies as last. A fine cent with hair slightly rubbed. 3 00.
- 115 — Still another, barely fair. 60c.
- 116 — Head and reverse quite different from any of this or other dates, known as the "JEFFERSON HEAD." Strong impression, with hair and cheek rubbed. Extremely desirable and rare. 26 50.

ON A LIBERTY CAP CENT, 1793.

Written for "Numisma."

Marking an epoch, when in manhood strong,
Fresh from the scathing of fierce bitter foes,
And stubborn battle's wildly surging throes;
Proud of a glory free from taint of wrong,
And rich with murmurs of unwritten song,
Our country in the world's host grandly rose,
Ready to meet its share of fortune's blows,
And conquer years storm-filled and trouble-long,
You come to us; a woman's royal face,
Wreathed in a golden mass of flowing hair,
The pure, sweet stamp that was to tell our fame,
When bravely striving in the noble race,
We flung our starry banner to the air,
And made our motto, Freedom all could claim.

THOS. S. COLLIER.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The custom which prevailed in ancient Rome of giving friends and acquaintances, on the new year, a token in bronze or silver, as a memento of friendship and good wishes for the coming year, was a very agreeable one—to the recipient. Following the ancient custom we are ready to receive from each and every one whom this little amateur paper may reach, the gift of fifty cents in script, cash, or postage stamps, and to show our appreciation of the favor, we will on the 1st of each second month of 1879 promptly mail, to the friendly donor, a copy of "Numisma" which as heretofore will devote its pages to numismatic news and gossip, notices of coin sales, and interesting original articles by amateur coin collectors.

COIN SALES.

The Henry W. Holland collection of coins and medals, catalogue by W. E. Woodward, was disposed of at auction by Messrs. Bangs & Co., in New York, during the week ending Nov. 16, 1878. The catalogue which numbers 4,208 lots, is one of the most interesting in point of fullness of description as well as typographical accuracy we have ever seen, and as the medals described frequently form complete series, it must prove a valuable work of reference to collectors of American coins and medals.

Catalogue of the valuable collection of coins of the late Joseph J. Mickley, compiled by E. Mason, Jr., and sold at Philadelphia, Nov. 5th and 6th, contains descriptions of many rare and valuable coins which Mr. Mickley had collected during his travels abroad, or at Philadelphia since the disposal of his famous collection ten years ago.

S. K. Harzfeld's Third Sale of coins and medals, December 7, 1878, at Bangs & Co., New York. At this sale Mr. Harzfeld offered many fine and rare ancient coins, foreign coins and medals, also Siege pieces, all of his own importation. This catalogue is also a model of typographical and descriptive accuracy.

The collection of American and Foreign, gold, silver, and copper coins of the late James E. Root, Esq., of Boston, Mass., catalogued by Mr. Ed. Cogan, and offered at Bangs & Co., December 16th, 17th and 18th last, comprised very many rare American coins, in the finest preservation. This catalogue was eagerly sought by collectors, and the edition was promptly exhausted. At the sale some remarkably high prices were realised for the rare American silver, we instance the 1796 half dollar which sold for 255 dollars. Altogether this was one of the finest collections ever offered by Mr. Cogan, and our readers know full well that he has offered many and will, we hope, offer many more.

Sale of Cents and Half Cents, the property of Mr. George W. Merritt, January 3d, 1879, at Bangs & Co., noticed elsewhere.

COMING SALES.

Mr. John W. Haseltine will offer at Messrs. Bangs & Co., January 15th, 16th and 17th, a valuable collection of United States coins and medals, Foreign coins and medals, Centennial medals and curiosities. Mr. Haseltine will also offer at Bangs & Co., January 31st, a cabinet of coins and medals, with a few exceptions, formerly the property of the late Mr. Joseph J. Mickley.

It is rumored that the entire manuscript of the catalogue of Mr. Schieffelin's collection of ancient coins was burned while in the hands of the printer, at a fire which occurred in Nassau St., New York. This will necessitate going over the entire work again.

MONOGRAPH OF UNITED STATES CENTS AND HALF CENTS, BY ED. FROSSARD, 1878.—The 8 plates of the cents and half cents, and the plate of rare colonial coins are now in our hands and will be ready for distribution to subscribers February 1st. The descriptive part cannot be issued before the end of June, and will be furnished without extra charge to those who may have purchased the plates either from us or through others. The plates are photographic, by the Helio type process, and emanate from the Helio type Printing Co., Boston, Massachusetts.

The specimens of the cents and half cents photographed were for the greater part the property of Mr. Geo. W. Merritt; others, among them, some of the rarest and finest, and all of the Colonial coins, are from the cabinet of Loring G. Parmelee, Esq., Boston, Mass.

Plate I; 12 obverses and 9 reverses, illustrate the 1793 cents.

Plate II; 18 obverses and 12 reverses all 1794 cents.

Plate III; 12 obverses and 12 reverses 1794, 95 and 96 cents.

Plate IV; 17 obverses and 13 reverses, cents of 1797 to 1804, inclusive.

Plate V; 13 obverses and 1 reverse, 1805—1814 cents; also 19 obverses and 5 reverses of half cents 1793—1807.

Plate VI; 34 obverses and 8 reverses, of half cents 1808—1857.

Plate VII; 29 obverses and 1 reverse of cents 1816—1836.

Plate VIII; 30 obverses of cents 1837—1857.

Plate IX; 33 obverses or reverses of rare Colonial coins. This plate illustrates, by photographs taken from the original pieces, in every instance, the following rare or unique coins:

Hog Island shilling and sixpence; Rosa Americana 1733; the Granby, Connecticut copper; the 3 Libertas, Justitia 1783 pattern dollar and half dollars, the Gloucester token, the New Yorke in America token; the Brashier, N. Y., doubloon in gold; the Nova Caesarea with date in field; the George Clinton penny; the 1794 Washington dollar in copper; the Washington naked bust cent; the Virginia shilling, and the rarest types of the New York, Confederatio and Franklin or Fugio cents, etc.

Plates I—VIII are sold as a set at $2. Plate IX with the others at $2.50, or separately for 50c. This plate is in every respect of finish, and perfect photographic representation, as well as arrangement, very beautiful, and if framed would make a pretty and attractive parlor or library ornament.

The "Monograph," without any attempt at a representation of more than the principal types of the cents and half cents, will nevertheless, we hope, be of some practical use to collectors in determining the variety or rarity of the American cents and half cents, and also in showing what a fine coin really is. We only ask American collectors to receive this work with the same degree of kindly feelings and forbearance with which they receive everything, good, bad or indifferent that tends to throw any light, be it ever so dim, on their favorite and fascinating pursuit.

COINS FOR SALE.

On account of our constantly increasing business in this department and for convenience of reference, we shall hereafter number the coins offered. Well known collectors, wishing to purchase, can have selections from our list sent on approval, but in justice to ourself and our other customers, they ought to retain the coins if found to conform with the descriptions. Others must send cash in advance, or give satisfactory references, when sending an order. All coins advertised or sold by us are warranted authentic and original unless otherwise stated.
